

The Rev. Kathryn Haueisen

Education

- Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, OH – BA in Journalism
- Lutheran Seminary Program of the Southwest, Austin, TX - M.Div.

Continuing Education

- Stephen Ministry Training to Train parish leaders
- Association of Lutheran Development Executives Conferences and Workshops
- Intentional Interim Ministry Training
- Capital Campaign Consultant Training
- Eric Law Diversity Leadership Training
- Family Systems and Healthy Congregations Training

Congregational/Church Experience

- Living Word Lutheran, Grapevine, TX 1986 – 1990. Associate Pastor
- Lutheran Outdoor & Retreat Ministries, Austin, TX 1990 – 1992. Program Director
- Zion Lutheran, Wooster, OH 1992 – 1996 – Associate Pastor
- Lutherhill Ministries, LaGrange, TX – 1996 – 2004 – Executive Director
- Christ the King Lutheran, Houston, TX – 2004 – 2007 – Associate Pastor/Director of The Melancthon Institute
- Disaster Response Ministry through Lutheran Social Services of the Southwest 2005/6
- ELCA Capital Campaign Services, Houston, TX – 2007 – Present – Consultant
- ELCA Capital Campaign Services, Chicago, IL – 2011 – 2014 – Director

Other Professional Experience

- The Defiance College, Defiance, OH — Public Relations
- Ohio Department of Natural Resources, Columbus, OH — Public Relations
- Outdoor Drama, New Philadelphia, OH — Public Relations
- Retreat and workshop motivational speaker